

Lucinda Brants writing is incredibly evocative, emotional, and a treat for the senses — Annette Blair, New York Times bestselling author Hampshire, England, 1777. Antonia, Dowager Duchess of Roxton, has been mourning the loss of her soul mate for three long years. Her despair is all-consuming until into her life steps a devilishly handsome younger man. Unconventional and self-assured, wealthy merchant Jonathon Strang will stop at nothing to convince Antonia she can love again, and deeply. Autumn Duchess is widely regarded a classic and a rule breaker, a rare example of a much-loved heroine's second chance at love in the autumn of her life. Deeply emotional and uplifting, Autumn Duchess is the stand-alone story that takes the Roxton Family saga into the bold new future of the next generation, led by Antonia's son, the 6th Duke of Roxton.
