What a pirate captain wants, he gets. And when Becky Dymond is thrown across time onto his ship, Captain Jasper Trevelyan takes. The very modern Becky Dymond seeks adventure on the high seas. But when her training brig is beset by a storm, she flung overboard and loses consciousness. Scarcely able to believe it, she realises she has been thrown back in time and onto a pirate ship with a strange and intimidating crew. But her situation improves greatly when she meets the charming and gorgeous Captain Jasper Trevelyan. If Becky wanted adventure, she's getting more than she ever thought possible. Soon her desire for the pirate king is impossible to deny. Jasper demands it all from Becky: her body, her loyalty and her cunning. His arch enemy, Redheart, has something that he wants back: the Scarlet Diamond and Becky can help reclaim it for him. Can Becky win Jasper's trust and devotion, and still get back home? The trouble is, there are no pirate captains in her time.
