

Legends of the West Volume II

The Legends of the West series covers the tumultuous 1830s through the 1860s in California, Nevada, and Utah--from when the American military and Mexican bandits warred over the riches of Spanish California, to the Bear Flag rebellion that carried California from Mexican to American ownership, to the 1850s gold rush, to the silver discovered in Virginia City in 1859, to the beginning of the Civil War and the division of a nation. This second book in the series tells of the heart-stopping adventures of rebel David Bollin, ships officer Rafer Maddox, and Wells Fargo & Co. attorney Jack Ryland. The California gold rush glittered with promise but it would change everything about their lives. Volume II contains Gold Rush Prodigal, Delta Passage, and Hangtown Lawman. 1.) GOLD RUSH PRODIGAL: Missionary kid David Bollin is determined to leave his Hawaii home to make his own fortune. After rejecting his parents faith and breaking his fathers heart, he boards a ship to Boston... and is plunged into a life entirely different from what he expects. 2.) DELTA PASSAGE: When unscrupulous plotters try to steal the paddle wheeler New World, First Officer Maddox commandeers the vessel and escapes the Long Island dock. But miles will carry him right into the heart of the California gold rush... and a deadly mystery surrounding a beautiful woman. 3.) HANGTOWN LAWMAN: Wells Fargo & Co. attorney Jack Ryland is riding the stage through California gold country when its robbed by highwaymen. To survive the California wilderness, Jack must catch the robbers and clear an innocent man. But perhaps the hardest task of all is gaining the heart of lovely and spunky fellow passenger Lisa Richardson.
