

The Confidant Tells

A friend who is burdened with everyone's secrets and no outlet of her own until now. She passes the baton to you as a way of relieving the pressure of the burden she bares for the sake of her friendships. The book contains three short stories about friendships, relationships, love and deception and how the characters handle each situation while having one link to connect them all in the story teller. Dominica and Dragon meet by chance. Will their love last or will their secrets destroy them? Robert and Amy look happy from a far. Is marriage all they ever wanted? Josephina and Casper have a relationship that all their friends want in theory. Will it really be until death do they part? The answer awaits you and you might be surprised.
