

The Sheikhs Illicit Affair

Megan van Lieden is living the dream; twenty-eight years old, and the owner of a successful dance studio in New York, she has it all. All except of course, a man to call her own, and a child. But all that is going to change. When Sheikh Zaakir Al-Hosseini walks through her door, Megan doesn't know what to expect. The multi-billionaire Sheikh of Al-Sharrabi wants urgent classes in the tango, one on one, in preparation for his arranged wedding day and is willing to pay big. Soon, student and teacher are entwined within the fiery dance, and quickly begin to lose themselves. The spark is undeniable, and Megan can barely contain her attraction for this gorgeously handsome, witty, but taken man. Fighting her body's urges at every moment, Megan agrees to more lessons with the Sheikh. Little does Megan know, however, that Sheikh Zaakir may not be telling her the whole truth. Can Megan avoid becoming little more than the Sheikhs Illicit Affair? And can she finally find that which has always eluded her: a beautiful and stable family? This is a stand-alone romance from Lara Hunter, with an original story from Holly Rayner. It is sweet, clean, and features a guaranteed HEA.
